Cottage Cheese / Hüttenkäse

Westdeutscher Rundfunk / ARD, Germany; by/von: Tim Staffel (author), Paul Plamper (director), J. Hedtke, H. Carstens, K.J. Martin, D. Bruder (sound), Martina Müller-Wallraf, WDR (producer)

Quote from the jury report:

A piece which is interesting because of its energy and contemporary approach to Radio Drama. In the language of Rap it tells a dramatic story of life in a gang with alcohol and sex with very little emotions, a lot of violence and the shared goal of getting enough drugs to attain Cottage cheese.

The jury found that it was clever writing, showing the lack of emotions and meaning of the life experienced by the gang. A fine portrait of a subculture told in its own language - and very well produced. A refreshing example of Radio Drama that can attract a wide audience.
